"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control."

Galatians 5:22-23

1. Love unconditional, 2. joy unending, 3. peace unsurpassed, 4. patience unceasing, 5. kindness unprejudiced, 6. goodness unlimited, 7. faithfulness uncompromising, 8. gentleness unexacting, 9. self-control unyielding.

These virtues are divine attributes of the new nature and find their perfect expression in the Lord Jesus:

- Love: unconditional resolve of heart that actively pursues the wellbeing of others
- Joy: state of inner delight in the Lord that transcends circumstances
- Peace: state of inner tranquility through confidence in God's love and power
- Patience: capacity to endure problems, suffering or delay without vexation
- Kindness: quality of being friendly, generous and considerate
- Goodness: moral righteousness in action for the blessing of others
- Faithfulness: quality of steadfast reliability and unwavering loyalty
- Gentleness: outward expression of meekness that shows tenderness and compassion to those with weaknesses or limitations
- Self-control: ability to regulate emotions, thoughts and behavior in the face of temptation
